

FAQ on Renewal of Registration

1. What is the Period for indicating Production details?

First Renewal:

From : Date of Grant of Registration

To : Three months before the current validity date

Subsequent Renewals:

From : Three months before the last validity date

To : Three months before the current validity date

2. If a Manufacturer has more than one Registration for the same product can he/she submit a single Renewal Application Form?

No. For each Registration Number, the Renewal Application has to be given separate with the production details for that particular Registration.

3. What is meant by 'Name of Article'?

'Name of Article' means the name of the Product for which BIS has granted Registration to the Manufacturer.

4. What are the details to be given under 'Quantity Marked'?

Total Quantity (in numbers) marked with BIS Registration Number for the reporting period for all Brands and all Models included in that Registration.

5. Who is the 'Purchaser of the Article'?

Consignee to whom the Product is billed/sold by the manufacturer. Details of major consignees/distributors to whom the product has been despatched during the period may be given.